

GRANDE PRAIRIE AND DISTRICT CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

invites applications for:

NUMERACY LEAD (1.0 FTE)

Up to a Three-Year Term

Starting August 28, 2018

The Numeracy Lead is responsible for promoting, modelling, and facilitating a differentiated, evidence-based approach to mathematics in classrooms.

Job #001-05-18-19

Those interested in this position are positive, progressive, and enjoy working in a collaborative, team-based environment.

Responsibilities:

- Modelling and team-teaching in the classroom
- Support for teachers
- Support for Administrators
- Data interpretation and analysis
- Coaching and mentoring new teachers
- Continuous learning for yourself and those you work with
- Mentorship role with other Leads in the district
- Contributing member of the School Improvement Team
- Other duties may be assigned by the Superintendent

The Ideal Candidate

- Strong working knowledge of numeracy, assessment, and differentiation
- Student-centered approach to instruction and assessment
- Self-reflection and the ability to accept feedback
- Independent and can self-initiate
- Passion for both student and teacher learning
- Flexible, adaptable approach to difficult situations
- Ability to work with a variety of personalities
- Exemplary communication skills
- Outstanding organizational skills
- Previous leadership experience

Professional Qualifications

- Maintains an active Catholic lifestyle within the local parish
- Bachelor in Education (or higher) with experience in Instructional Leadership
- Teaching experience in Mathematics
- Valid Class 5 Driver's license, vehicle, and a willingness to travel to all district schools

Applications should include a letter of interest, curricula vitae, and a list of three professional references. Place job title and job# in subject line and email to:

Human Resources
Catholic Education Centre
9902 - 101 Street, Grande Prairie, Alberta T8V 2P4
Phone: (780) 532-3013 / Fax: (780) 532-3430 Email: humanresources@gpcsd.ca

Applications will be accepted until Friday, May 4th, 2018