

Media Release

June 13, 2019

Contact Information:

Michael Ouellette, Chair (780) 532 – 2160 or (780) 518 – 9355
Karl Germann, Superintendent (780) 532 – 3013 or (780) 518 – 3691

New Principal of St. Mary’s Sexsmith, Mandy Jensen.

We are pleased to announce that Mandy Jensen will become our new Principal assigned to St. Mary’s Sexsmith on August 1, 2019.

Mandy Jensen is a driven individual who believes in the value of providing the best education possible for her students. Over the years Mandy has taught multiple grade levels and Montessori. Recently she completed her first year of her Master’s Degree in Educational Leadership with Honours. She believes in the creation of a strong supportive learning environment, with clear communication and guidance.

This time last year, Mandy was selected to become the Assistant Principal of Mother Teresa Catholic School. A year later and she has had a significant impact on her school community.

“She wants the best for her students and works hard to make it a reality every day. She will be a great fit for the St. Mary’s Sexsmith community,” said Superintendent of Schools, Karl Germann.

Congratulations Mandy! We look forward to you taking on the role of Principal on August 1, 2019.